

PEHD5204 ARCHITECTURAL JOURNALISM (3-0-0)

Structure of Architectural Journals. Writing descriptive and analytical reports, editing write-ups, photo journalism Book reviews, Page Composition, The Public process, Electronic Media.

References:-

The teacher shall develop his reference from various sources.

NB: The students should be exposed to the work of professional art and architecture. Various forms of architecture Review/record, progressive architecture, Japan architecture etc. and journals of RIBA, American Institute of Architects, IIA, etc. Report writing should be presented to a panel to be chaired by the teachers for discussions.
Criticism and consequential changes. Students other than the author should be asked to write a report/review of the discussions.